Foreword

Each and every one of us is different, yet one term is commonly used to describe all of us—college student. Our college is West Georgia. West Georgia is an institution for higher learning . . . it is meeting new people . . . joing clubs and organizations . . . becoming a member of a tribe . . . Playing bridge in the lounge . . . participating in varsity spots. However, it is something more, and it is this intangible substance that the staff of this yearbook cannot quite describe. Consequently, we are presenting to you, the heart and soul of West Georgia College, a pictorial review of the 1962-63 year and leaving it up to you to take and decide for yourself just what West Georgia is.

To one who has inspired the students of West Georgia College
Through her outstanding ability as a teacher,
Through her pleasing personality and good humor,
Through her high Christian ideals,
Through her sincere interest in each student,
We dedicate this the 1963 Chieftain, to you Miss Dorothy McNabb,
better known as "Miss Mac."

PROLOGUE

Orientation is a week of organized mass confusion . . . new clothes . . . new faces . . . new ideas . . . waiting in line! registration frustration . . . Changing schedules . . . the annual rat cap.

Even before classes begin, Parties! . . . . Dark gym and rock 'n roll . . . . Fads and fashions . . . . skirts hemmed up above the knees . . . . racoon coats and weejuns . . . . everybody doing the twist

RAT WEEK . . . . SADIE HAWKINS theme . . . . . Freshmen parade town . . . . sweep streets . . . . "Thank heavens its over" . . . First few weeks of school most hectic for these "lowly rats."

WHO'S WHO in American Colleges and Universities is nationally recognized as one of the highest honorary societies to which a student can belong. This year nineteen of our Juniors and Seniors will appear in the National Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities Yearbook. Only Juniors and Seniors who meet the qualifications of leadership, scholarship, participation in campus activities, citizenship, and service to the school are selected.

The organization awards each member a certificate of recognition, presented on the campus either at graduation or earlier in the year. Also, it provided a placement or reference service to assist members seeking employment, scholarships, or fellowships.

Chieftain Salutes

The 1963 Chieftain salutes outstanding students at West Georgia College. Represented in this year's select group are five Seniors, five Juniors, five Sophomores, and four Freshmen. These students are carefully nominated by a student-faculty committee, and then voted on by the student body. These are the students who give freely of their time to worthwhile school activities, are outstanding in leadership and scholarship, and whose past record gives them a promise of future usefulness. The 1963 Chieftain salutes these students and all others who, because of their attitudes and activities, deserve recognition.

PEOPLE

PRESIDENT OF

Dr. Boyd is in his second year as President of West Georgia.

West Georgia College

Dear Students:

Cordial greetings to all of you! It has been a great pleasure to work—and play—with you and the faculty at West Georgia College this year. Together, we are building a great college in Carrollton. And, I hope that this experience in living, learning and growing together is proving as stimulating and rewarding for you as for me.

West Georgia College is growing in many ways. It is growing in quantity; i.e., in the numbers of students, faculty, programs, and buildings. But, of far greater importance is its growth in quality, particularly in the quality of faculty and students. I wish to take this opportunity to commend you for your growth, for the greater maturity and sense of responsibility you are showing in your attitudes, activities, relationships and studies this year. It appears to me that you are taking better advantage of your opportunities to develop your capacities for self-fulfillment and service to others. You are showing a greater desire to learn, a more inquiring and open mind, more ability to think for yourself and to work with others. You are developing into men and women who will be assets to your state and country.

Congratulations to you who will graduate this year. You are receiving your degree from a great institution, one you will be proud of in the future. I hope that you will keep in close touch with us through the Alumni Association, that you will continue to help us build, and that you will return to the campus as often as possible.

Best wishes to all of you for continued success and happiness in your endeavors.

Sincerely,
James E. Boyd

CHIEFTAIN STAFF

The Chieftain, the college yearbook, is so called because the Indian is the emblem of the college. The first issue of the Chieftain appeared in 1934.

Candidates for Editor-in-chief must apply by letter to the selection committee not later than April 15 each year. Appointment of the editor-in-chief is made by the selection committee following personal interviews with the candidates. Other staff members are chosen by tryouts. A final selection is made from among those who in these tryouts show most ability in artistic and editorial work.

The Chieftain has been awarded first honor rating several times by the National Scholastic Press Association.

Sue Jarman is Assistant Editor.

Members of the Chieftain staff: Pat Fulton Wanda Vickery, Margaret Vaughn, Bobbie Whaley, Sandra Crowley, Carol Ann Mowell, Mike Neal, W. H. Smith, and Chuck Kimbell.

Alpha Theta is the student organization of the speech and drama department of West Georgia College. Its purpose is to stimulate interest and promote skill in acting, directing, and stage management, as well as to further the knowledge of the individual in drama. It also gives each member an over-all concept of the ideals and practices in all aspects of theatre. The club presents one three-act play at the end of each quarter the regular school year. Major emphasis is placed on the development of the student as a well-adjusted individual who can express himself easily and effectively. Membership is open to any student interested in drama, who participates in a play production, either by acting or working on stage crews. The drama program of West Georgia College is designed so that audience, crews, and actors may be introduced to many styles of drama and production.

BRAVE BASKETBALL TEAM ON ROAD TO TOP

Steve Bridges was honored by being elected captain of the basketball team. Steve is only a sophomore.

The West Georgia basketball team, guided by the promising leadership of Coach Howard Corder and two outstanding junior transfers, made another big stride this season toward court recognition in the Georgia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Ron Underiener, with a 16.3 average per game in scoring, and Bill Shotwell with a 15.7 average, sparked the Braves to a 7-11 over-all season record and a 6-4 finish in the conference.

When Coach Howard Corder took the reigns of head basketball tutor last year, the Braves were accustomed to nothing better than the cellar position in the conference. His first season with the Braves found them jumping into the fifth place spot, and this season they moved up to third.

With his entire team returning for another tour of duty next year, and a promising crew of freshmen moving into the varsity category, Coach Corder feels that the Braves will be one of the best, if not the best, teams in the conference next season.

In addition to the return of standouts, Underiener and Shotwell, Coach Corder will also have David Brookins, Dudley Eubanks, Steve Bridges, and Dan Lee back for another session.

Brookins averaged 10.1 points in scoring during the past season, followed by Eubanks with a 9.5 average, Bridges with a 6.2 average, and Lee with a 6.0 average.

Other members of the past season squad who Coach Corder feels will boost the Braves' chances for a championship in the coming season are Chuck Miller, Gene Ginn, Billy Dills, and Ken McInnis.

Braves Rewrite Record Book

The statistics have been revealed regarding the national recognition achieved by the West Georgia Braves in the '62 baseball season. Since then, an official report has been received from the National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics offering the year's compiled statistics.

Another detailed report from the Georgia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference was also received by Coach Tom D'Armi stating the standings held in conference by the Braves.

These reports would indicate a record-breaking year for the Braves from start to finish. On a local, state, and national basis, the Braves experienced one of the most successful years in school history.

The first record-breaker on the books was in all-conference selectees. Six of the starting nine Braves were named to the top ranks in the conference and the remaining three received honorable mention.

This was the largest number of representatives from a single team to ever make the honor list in a single season. Selection for the all-conference team was based on ballots from opposing conference coaches.

Another first in the record books at West Georgia is the title of Conference Champions as a senior college.

Coach D'Armi, being awarded the citation as conference "Coach of the Year," became the first West Georgia baseball coach to be so honored.

On Baseball Diamond for '62

Another top accomplishment was their won and lost record in conference play, 8-0, which is the best recorded in the GIAC record books.

Other top honors held in the conference by the Braves in '62 include: best team defensive; best hitting average; best pitching record; led in number of stolen bases; most total runs; and best earned run average held by pitchers.

The '62 seasonal record of 13-2 posted by the Braves was the best in the nation for a senior college. This record is also the best recorded by a GIAC team in the history of the conference.

In national recognition, the Braves ranked eighth in the nation's small colleges in team batting with an average of .332.

The Braves finished twelfth in the nation in team pitching in the earned run category. Their pitching staff gave up an average of 2.28 earned runs per game.

A team that became famous for their running game by the end of the season, the Braves finished third in the nation in team stolen bases.

The Braves stole an amazing total of 96 bases in their 15 games for an average of close to seven per game. Out of this total, nine of the steals were at home plate.

In the individual stolen base category, Brave centerfielder, Bill Davis, finished eighth in the nation with 19 steals in the 15 game schedule.

West Georgia's '62 Championship baseball team had six out of their nine starters listed on the all-conference team. In addition to this, Coach Tom D'Armi was named the Conference Baseball Coach of the Year.

A rather unusual result, which speaks well for the Brave pitching staff, was the selection of two pitchers, Rocks Hudgins and Jim Partain, to the all-conference team.

Three infielders were named to the select list of stars for their action on the diamond. These were Ronnie Burchfield, catcher; Wyatt Webb, first baseman; and Steve Norris, third baseman. Bill Davis, centerfielder, was the only representative from the outfield.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS at West Georgia College

In the Intramural Sports Program, the number of intramural games played and the student participation record, the West Georgia College men's program has high national ranking among colleges of similar size. This information is based on the 1961-62 official report of the National Association of Intramural Directors which periodically publishes the statistics concerning college and university intramural programs. The total number participating in the fall quarter, 1962-63, showed an increase over the total for the fall quarter of 1961-62.

The organization and development of the men's intramural sports program is directed by Coach Tom D'Armi, who states that intramurals and a good physical education program are equally as important as varsity sports. Goal of the program is to stimulate participation not only for recreational purposes but also for the development and continuation of physical fitness.

The annual Christmas relays were a big success with each tribe participating.

Arnold G. Moore (Big G.) tries to boost the APACHES along in the "tug-of-war."

The tricycle event was enjoyed by all who participated as well as the spectators.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

Enthusiam, sportsmanship, and competition make the women's intramural program at West Georgia College one of the best in the state. The women learn new skills and earn points for awards on both tribe and individual basis. Soccer, volleyball, basketball, softball, bowling, and tennis are enjoyed by many girls on a tribe basis. Badminton, table tennis, bridge, horseshoes, and hopscotch are participated in on an individual basis.

Editor's Epitaph

The faces you see in on these pages represent all of you. You are the ones for whom this Chieftain was published. You are the ones whom we will look to for criticism, either good or bad.

This is being written just before the last copy pages will leave the campus. After months of diligent work, we are happy to see them leave our hands. It has been difficult putting these pages together—getting pictures, copy, cutlines, etc. But it has been fun. It's an experience we'll never quite forget.

Many, many persons are responsible for getting out the college yearbook. If we didn't express our appreciation, the Chieftain wouldn't be complete.

To the advisors, administrative, faculty, and staff members we certainly want to say thanks.

To W. H. Smith who did an excellent job as the 1963 Beauty Revue Director, we certainly want to express our appreciation. To the photographers, and especially to you—the student body—we want to say thank you.

It is our hope that each and everyone of you will be satisfied with the 1963 Chieftain and, as another year of history at West Georgia is recorded in this yearbook, will take and decide for yourself the question proposed in the Foreword, "What is West Georgia?"

WANDA VICKERY
